

the FYE2024 drainage ditch work opinion survey (v1.0)

All Responses

Question 1: Do you want the board to move forward with the contentious line item in the FYE2024 budget that is associated with the drainage ditch work that will cost approximately 500.00 per residential property owner or thereabouts?

Question 2: If you voted no to question 1, do you want the monies associated with the line item in the FYE2024 budget associated with the drainage ditch work to be diverted and earmarked to the capital reserve?

Question 3: Did you attend the virtual town hall, conference call held on Thursday, March 16, 2023?

Question 4: If the community votes down the FYE2024 assessment, do you want the board to revert to the FYE2023 as community president, Paul Bradley, plans to do?

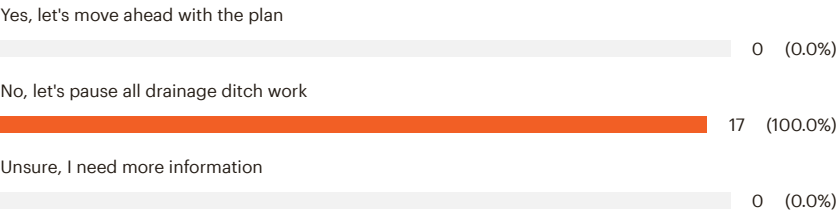

Question 5: In advance of the Board Elections Meeting held on September 3, 2022, did you exercise your ballot, handing it to a representative of the property management company at the meeting or did you mail your ballot to the property management company?

Question 6: If the community votes down the FYE2024 assessment, do you want the board to revert to the FYE2023 as community president, Paul Bradley, plans to do?

Print all responses and charts

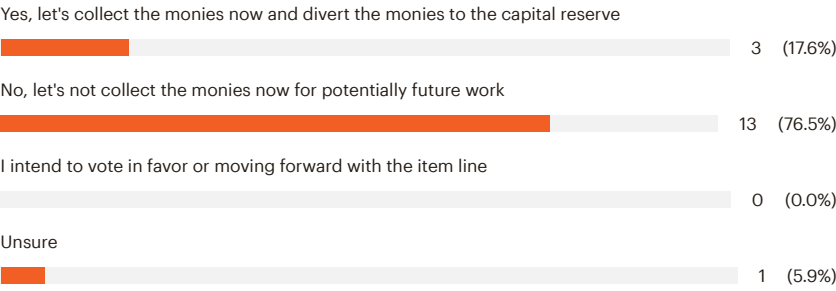

Question 1 has 17 answers (Radio Buttons)

“Do you want the board to move forward with the contentious line item in the FYE2024 budget that is associated with the drainage ditch work that will cost approximately 500.00 per residential property owner or thereabouts?”

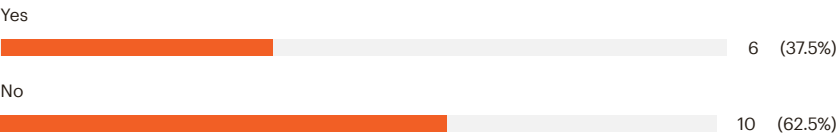

Question 2 has 17 answers (Radio Buttons)

“If you voted no to question 1, do you want the monies associated with the line item in the FYE2024 budget associated with the drainage ditch work to be diverted and earmarked to the capital reserve? ”

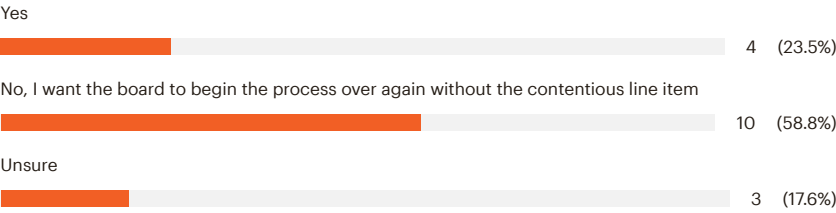

Question 3 has 16 answers (Radio Buttons)

“Did you attend the virtual town hall, conference call held on Thursday, March 16, 2023?”

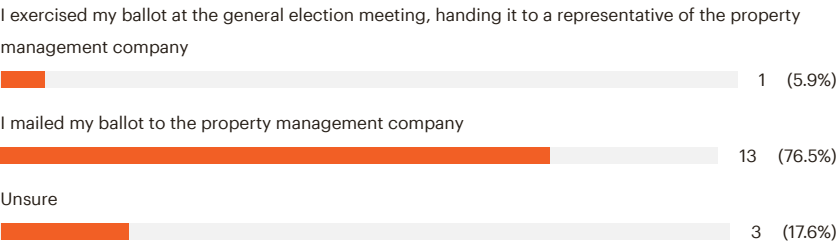

Question 4 has 17 answers (Radio Buttons)

“If the community votes down the FYE2024 assessment, do you want the board to revert to the FYE2023 as community president, Paul Bradley, plans to do?”

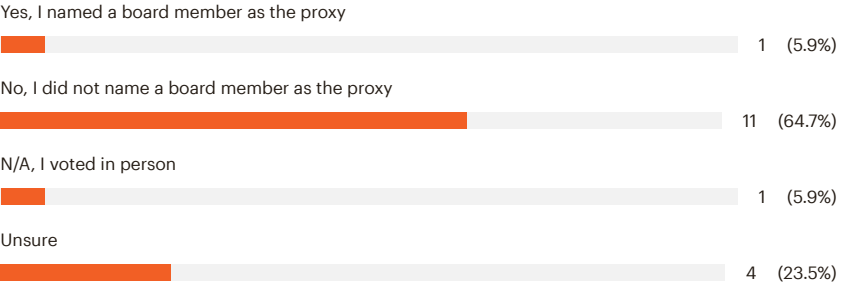

Question 5 has 17 answers (Radio Buttons)

“In advance of the Board Elections Meeting held on September 3, 2022, did you exercise your ballot, handing it to a representative of the property management company at the meeting or did you mail your ballot to the property management company?”

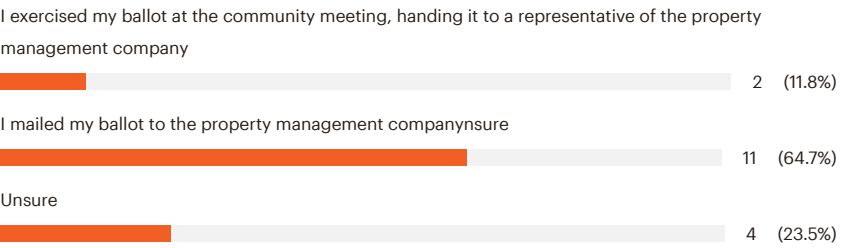

Question 6 has 17 answers (Radio Buttons)

“If you mailed your ballot for the Board Elections meeting held on September 3, 2022 to the property management company, did you name a board member to exercise your ballot as a proxy ballot?”

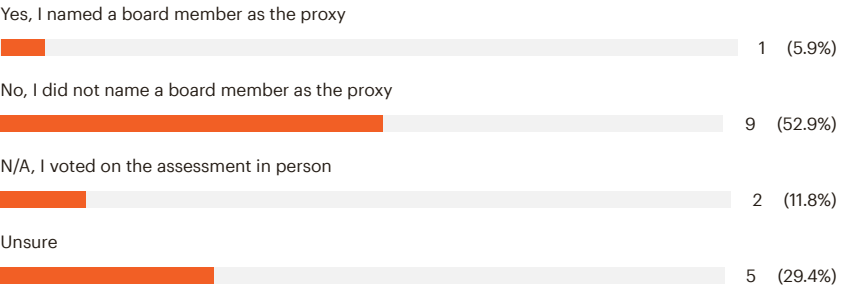

Question 7 has 17 answers (Radio Buttons)

“In advance of the Community Meeting held on May 7, 2022, did you exercise your assessment ballot, handing it to a representative of the property management company at the meeting or did you mail your ballot to the property management company?”

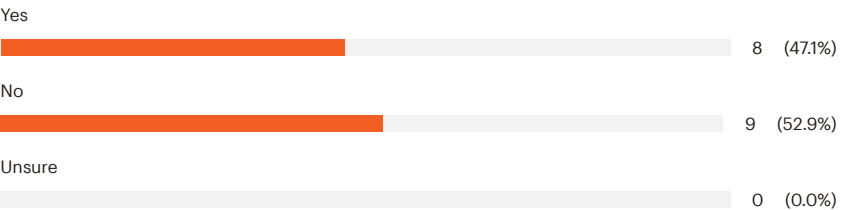

Question 8 has 17 answers (Radio Buttons)

“If you mailed your ballot for the Community Meeting held on May 7, 2022 to the property management company, did you name a board member to exercise your assessment ballot as a proxy ballot?”

Question 9 has 17 answers (Radio Buttons)

“Did you rent your property for more than two weeks over the 2022 season?”

Question 10 has 17 answers (Radio Buttons)

“Did you sign the 2017 petition, demanding the board impose a 6% - 8% rental tax?”

